Who's Entitled to Little River Water—
the People or Dierks?

The Nashville News, reporting to-day on a conference last week in Tulsa, Okla., between the Little River Valley Improvement association and the district office of the Corps of Engineers, says a new proposal has been advanced to break the deadlock over Millwood dam.

The Howard county paper says the deal is to substitute for one big dam with a permanent reservoir seven small upstream dams—and a three-quarter scale Millwood which would be left open except in times of flood.

The Nashville News does mention that the new proposal would be a simple statement of the fact that the Millwood dam is only a temporary expedient.

Auto Hits Back of Truck Driven by Local Man

An auto driven by Robert B. Newman, 10400th St., W. Va., who is stationed with the Air Force at Wichita Falls, Texas, ran into the back of a pickup truck driven by Clyde A. Monts about 7 1/2 m. today on Highway 7 near the Experimental Station here.

Mr. Monts complained of a back injury while the serviceman suffered a bruised neck and a broken arm. Both vehicles were damaged.

According to investigating State Police Officer R. H. Tomlinson, Newman was driving a long time and was worn out. He must have been at the wheel and drove away from the wreck to the left but the right front of the auto struck the left rear of the truck.

Newman was charged with following too close. Mr. Tomlinson said.

It is a decision has been made to accept the offer of Newman, who is a local man, to pay for the damage to the truck.

Some SWC Schools Play Saturday

Associated Press Staff
Southwest Conference football coaches were putting emphasis on what's in the player's head rather than how hard it is Tuesday, as season opener neared for final teams.

At College Station, Texas A&M Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant announced there would be no more contact work for his monomaniacal team before its Saturday night debut against Texas Tech. The Aggies were down to 35 men, smallest squad in the conference, after the announcement that the team was to play this week.

Kennon was hurt last Saturday in an inter-squad game. Coaches reported they were cutting down on the length of drills and emphasizing the team were doing. Lengthening injury lists from last week's heavy "rattle" were blamed for the lighter schedules.

Defending Cotton Bowl Champion Rice abandoned its two-day drill schedule after two players came down with injuries in last Saturday's intrasquad clash. Fullback Mac Taylor, Guard Lew Harrell, Tackle Jean Baras and Halfback Sammy Burk have been hurt, and Halfback Gordon Kallgren missed Monday's workout due to illness.

Punt return and kickoff drills ceased with injuries under game conditions at Rice as the Owls point toward their Saturday night opener with Florida.

Left Halfback George Robinson was still missing from the University of Texas starting lineup Monday but running back Delano Mack was back in action. Both were hurt last week. Robinson received a neck injury and Vornack a jarred head, the Longhorns co-champions of the conference, face Louisiana State Saturday.

A non-contact drill at Texas Christian University featured past defense and defense in preparation for the Frogs' first game with Kansas Saturday. Ronald Cline and Charles Curtis continued their battle for the starting quarterback post with sharp work.

The Bears spent the rest of Monday's workout defending against probable Houston Strategy. Arkansas and Southern Methodist, which open later than the rest of the schools, worked on passing and scoring plays.

Fate of Red Goose Awaits '56 Decision

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government had hoped to gook the Communist party's goose by next spring. Now it has in sight an earlier fate. This delays perhaps until 1956 a final decision on the fate of the party.

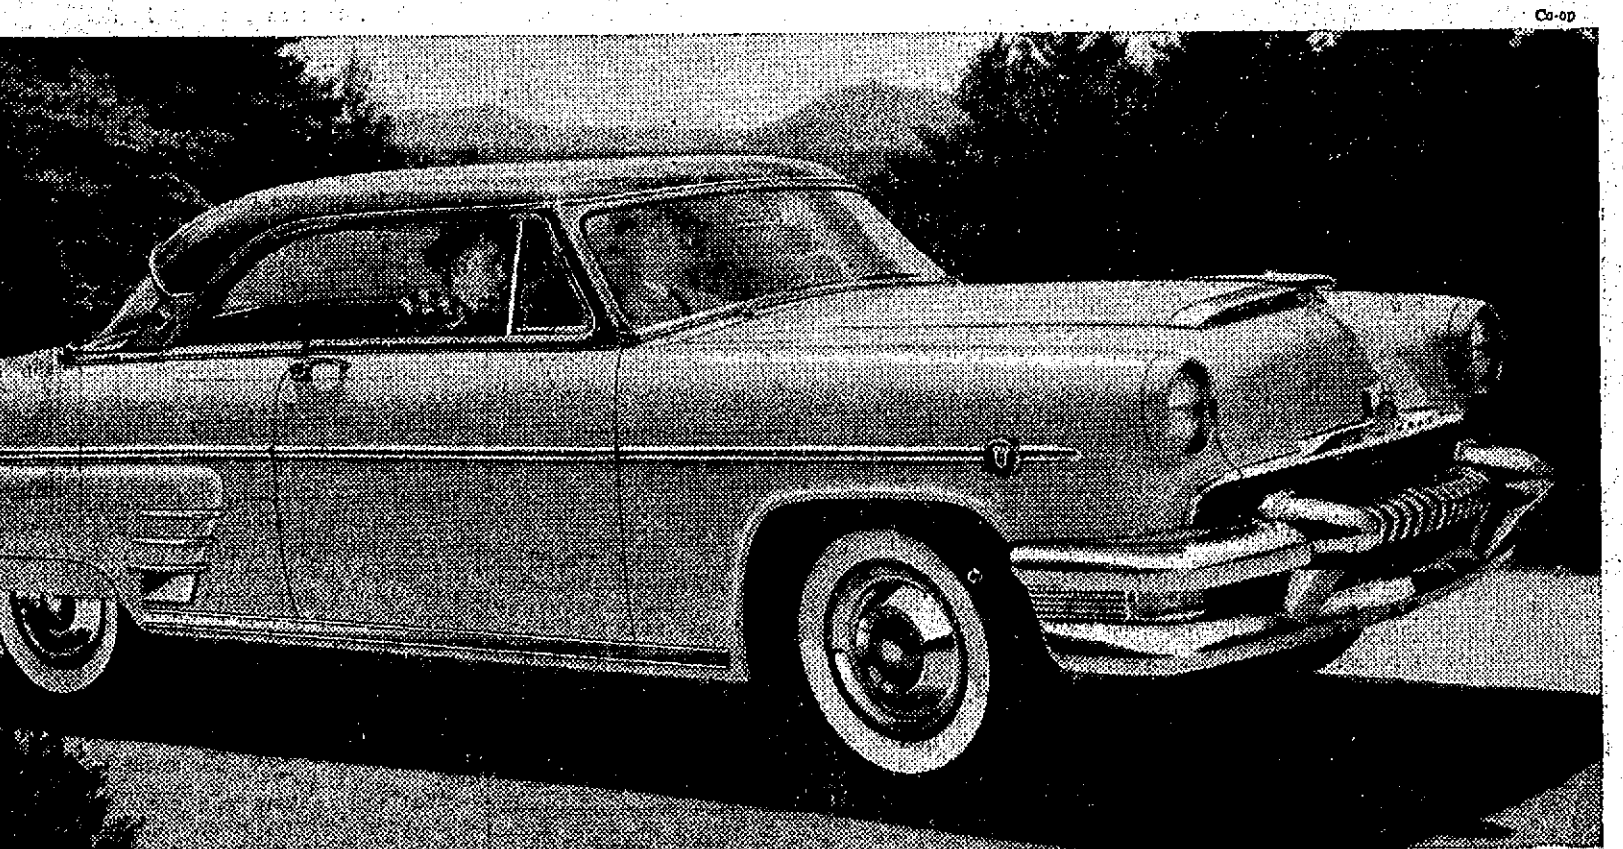

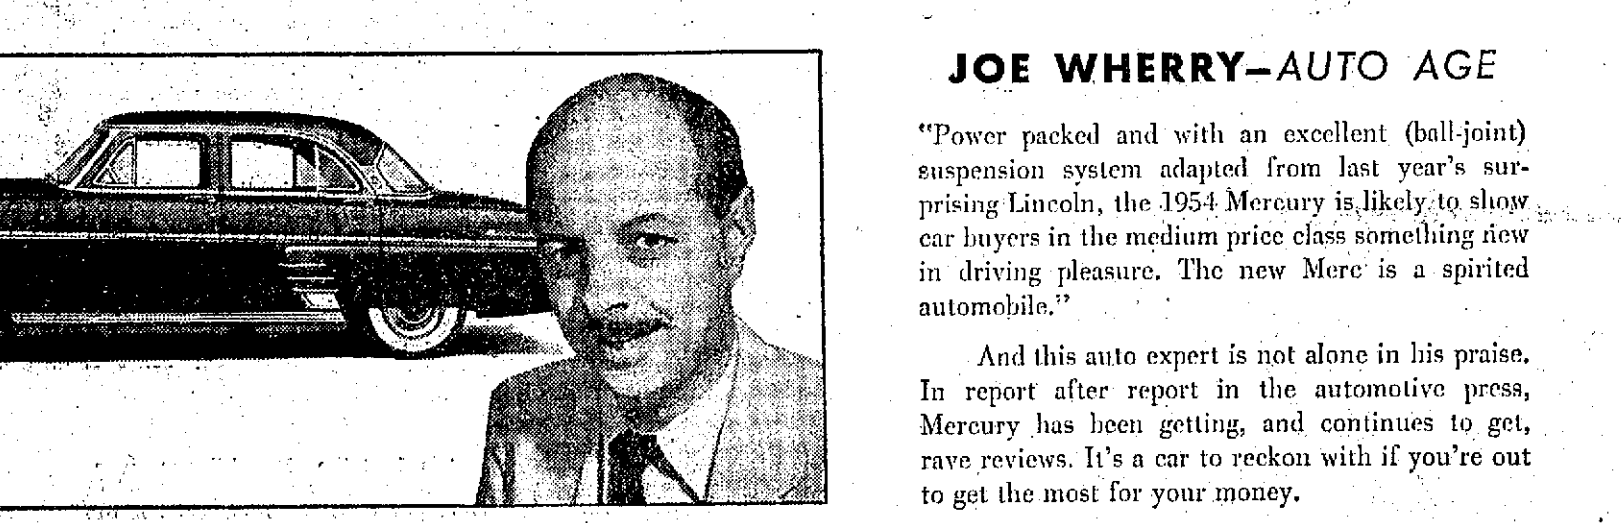

The timetable was upset late yesterday by the United States Court of Appeals here when it ordered new arguments in the government's efforts to make the party register as a Russian agent.

ANOTHER AUTO EXPERT GOES ALL OUT FOR MERCURY

"In roadability we rate this car far ahead of any other in its class"

6 MORE REASONS WHY MERCURY IS THE HOTTEST CAR IN RECENT YEARS

1. You get an entirely new 160-horsepower overhead valve V-8 with more advanced features than any other engine in its field. You enjoy power that's smoother, quieter, more responsive.
2. You get stay-in-style beauty—a clean, fresh, out-of-the-future design that helps protect your investment.
3. You are offered a complete line of far-advanced power features that aid your driving: optional power steering, power brakes, a 4-way power seat, and power window lifts for all 4 windows.
4. You get the advantages of high horsepower without sacrificing economy. A unique 4-barrel carburetor operates on 2 barrels for thrifter normal driving and switches "vacuumatically" to 4 barrels when full reserve power is needed for quicker, safer passing.
5. You can have no-shift driving at a low price—optional Merco-G-Matic Drive.
6. You get a car with high resale value. According to authoritative reports, Mercury leads its field for top resale value.

Ginger's Young Husband Signs Movie Contract

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 14 (UPI)—Jacques Bergere, a handsome Basque from Biarritz, has just signed a movie contract with a variety of stars, including Clark Gable, Bette Davis, and others.

His first movie was made in England, and he co-starred with Ginger in "The Sign of the Cross".

"I didn't want it that way," he said. "But the script was good and I wanted to play a Frenchman which I am. So I didn't But both of us hope we can go our own ways professionally."

Bergere still has a noticeable accent, but is completely understandable. "No matter how hard I would I will always have an accent," he said. "Look at Charles Boyer, he still speaks with an accent though he has been in this country 20 years."

DOROTHY DIX Music - Her Master

Dear Miss Dix: My wife, Rosalie, left me two months ago after four years of marriage. She is 22, I am 28. We have no children and never had a home of our own. We lived with her people who have been trying right along to separate us; they did not like me. After Rosalie left, of course, returned to my own family.

Our chief difficulty has been that she wanted a career while I wanted a family. She is a talented musician and wanted to continue studying. I insisted she give it up, because I thought she'd soon tire of lessons anyway. Now the only condition on which she'll come back to me is that I let her continue music lessons. Although I love her dearly, I can't consent to this arrangement as I think she should be devoting her time to a family.

Comromise Demanded
When stubborn pride meets implacable resistance, the results are apt to be irreconcilable differences. Neither you nor your wife is prepared to give an inch and resolve your problem, yet it appears that you have reached a compromise. Consult a marriage counselor who will help you on the right path.

You neglected to give a reason for not setting up your own home. It is because your wife wished to live with her people, because you couldn't afford a home for her, or because you welcomed the lack of responsibility provided by living in someone else's house? If you were at fault in not setting up a home, be as friendly and pleasant as she'll permit, and your persistence will win out eventually.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a divorcee and it won't hurt a bit, as you range from 1 to 12. My ex-husband remarried shortly after the divorce. I am permitted to see the children at my convenience, but I have never housekeeping under parental roofs or refused him visiting privileges, and one of the major ones is the trouble is that he is particular.

Some SWC Schools Play Saturday

Associated Press Staff
Southwest Conference football coaches were putting emphasis on what's in the player's head rather than how hard it is Tuesday, as season opener neared for final teams.

At College Station, Texas A&M Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant announced there would be no more contact work for his monomaniacal team before its Saturday night debut against Texas Tech. The Aggies were down to 35 men, smallest squad in the conference, after the announcement that the team was to play this week.

Kennon was hurt last Saturday in an inter-squad game. Coaches reported they were cutting down on the length of drills and emphasizing the team were doing. Lengthening injury lists from last week's heavy "rattle" were blamed for the lighter schedules.

Defending Cotton Bowl Champion Rice abandoned its two-day drill schedule after two players came down with injuries in last Saturday's intrasquad clash. Fullback Mac Taylor, Guard Lew Harrell, Tackle Jean Baras and Halfback Sammy Burk have been hurt, and Halfback Gordon Kollage missed Monday's workout due to illness.

Punt return and kickoff drills ceased with injuries under game conditions at Rice as the Owls point toward their Saturday night opener with Florida.

Left Halfback George Robinson was still missing from the University of Texas starting lineup Monday but running back Delano Mack was back in action. Both were hurt last week. Robinson received a neck injury and Vornack a jarred head, the Longhorns co-champions of the conference, face Louisiana State Saturday.

A non-contact drill at Texas Christian University featured past players in Monday workouts in preparation for the Frogs' first game with Kansas Saturday. Ronald Cline and Charles Curtis continued their battle for the starting quarterback post with sharp work.

The Bears spent the rest of Monday's workout defending against probable Houston Strategy. Arkansas and Southern Methodist, which open later than the rest of the schools, worked on passing and scoring plays.

Fate of Red Goose Awaits '56 Decision

WASHINGTON (UP) - The government had hoped to gook the Communist party's goose by next spring. Now it has to fight an uphill battle. This delays perhaps until 1956 a final decision on the fate of the party.

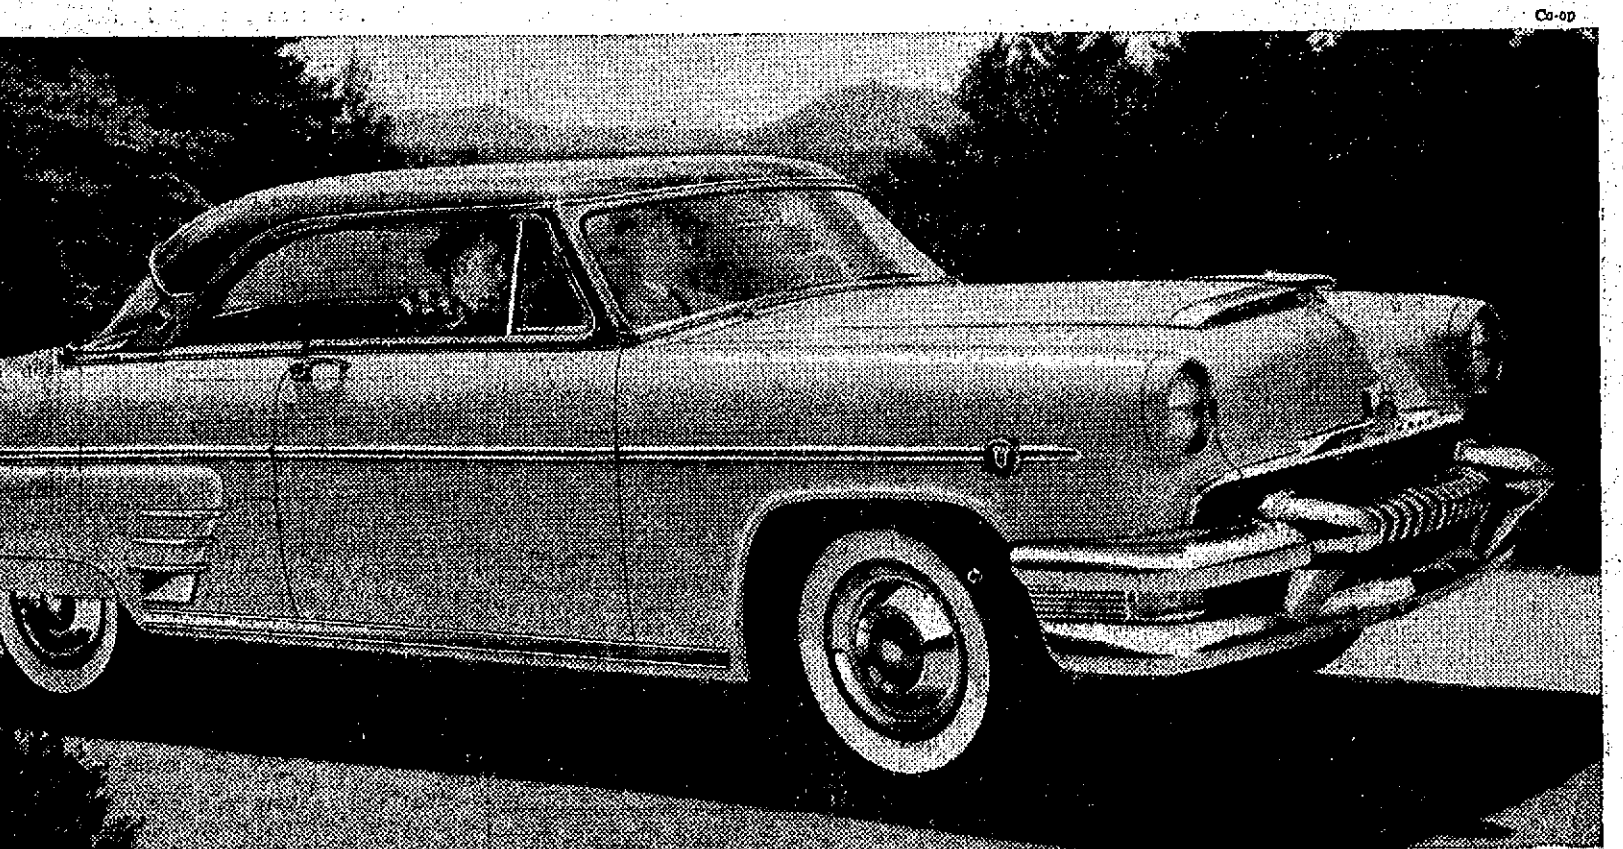

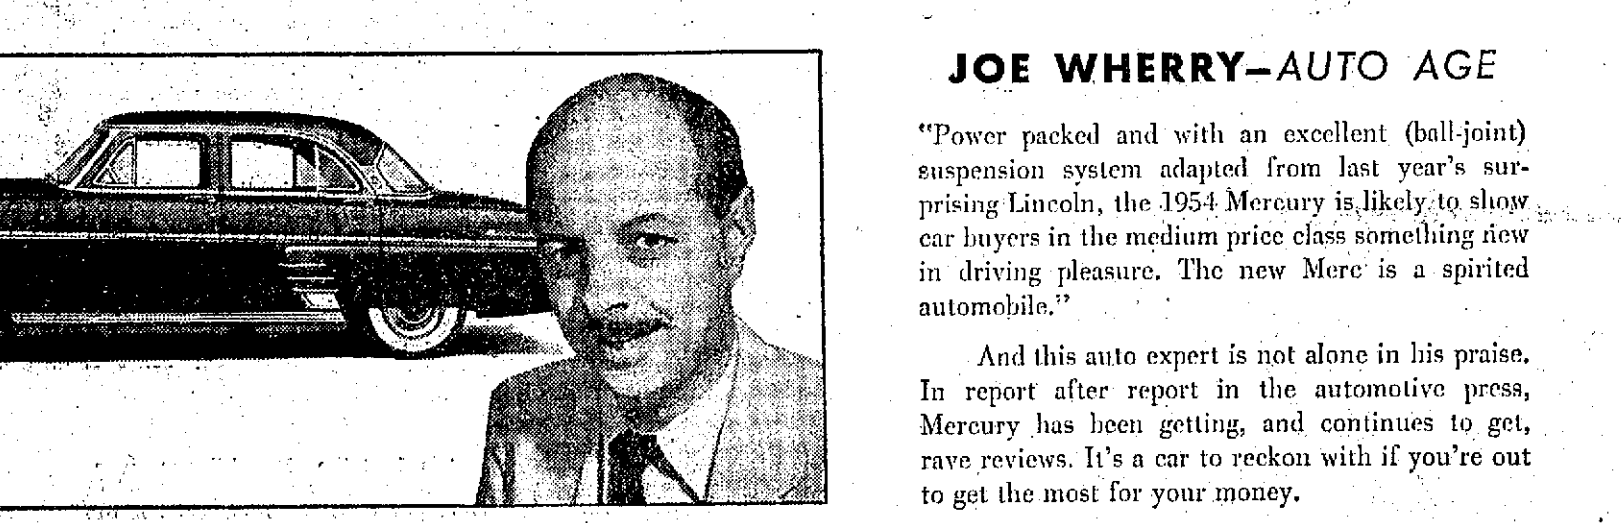

The timetable was upset late yesterday by the United States Court of Appeals here when it ordered new arguments in the government's efforts to make the party register as a Russian agent.

ANOTHER AUTO EXPERT GOES ALL OUT FOR MERCURY

"In roadability we rate this car far ahead of any other in its class"

6 MORE REASONS WHY MERCURY IS THE HOTTEST CAR IN RECENT YEARS

1. You get an entirely new 160-horsepower overhead valve V-8 with more advanced features than any other engine in its field. You enjoy power that's smoother, quieter, more responsive.
2. You get stay-in-style beauty - a clean, fresh, out-of-the-future design that helps protect your investment.
3. You are offered a complete line of far-advanced power features that aid your driving: optional power steering, power brakes, 4-way power seat, and power window lifts for all 4 windows.
4. You get the advantages of high horsepower without sacrificing economy. A unique 4-barrel carburetor operates on 2 barrels for thrifter normal driving and switches "vacuumatically" to 4 barrels when full reserve power is needed for quicker, safer passing.
5. You can have no-shift driving at a low price - optional Merco-G-Matic Drive.
6. You get a car with high resale value. According to authoritative reports, Mercury leads its field for top resale value.

Ginger's Young Husband Signs Movie Contract

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 14 (AP) - Jacques Bergerac, a handsome Basque from Bismarck, has signed a movie contract with MGM. He was 21 when he saw Paris for the first time. The second was at 25 when he visited Hollywood.

Both events have had a profound influence on his life. He told about them as was launched in Sunset Strip cafe.

"I had lived all my life in Bismarck which is a very quiet town," he explained, "except for the two months of my year when the international set makes it their resort. Otherwise I had seen little of life."

"I was just a boy when I went away to Paris for college. What an awakening! Such excitement! I graduated in law when I was 21 and left for my year in the Army."

"When I returned to Paris I was not to be a lawyer. I gave up the law to become an actor."

Bergerac traveled with the American movie star, Jeanette Goddard, and Victor Hugo.

Dear Miss Dix: Two years ago I broke off with a girl I had dated for several months. I was just too young to realize what a fine personality she was. Now that I know what I gave up, I am very sorry, and realize my problem, yet it appears that she has moved on and is completely uninterested in me. I'm sure she's afraid of a recurrence of the early affair. I'm 20 years old and she's 18.

Answer: You are still very young and it won't hurt a bit if you give her a chance. If you like the girl so much, be as friendly and pleasant as you can, and your persistence will win out eventually.

Third Escape Is Recaptured

MARKED THEM (UP) The last of three prisoners who escaped from the Polk County Jail last week was captured near here last night.

Kenneth Sullivan, 32, surrendered meekly when officers surprised him as he walked out of a swamp and onto a railroad trestle. Sul-lians was armed with a tucchi knife and an ice pick but put up no fight.

Sullivan and two others, Stanley Miles and Kenneth Dale Spun, escaped from the county jail at Fayetteville, Ark., last Wednesday.
 Miles was captured shortly after the break and Spun was arrested yesterday.

On the Monday, after the conference was closed last year, all seven football coaches showed up at the Quarterback Club at 11 a.m.
 Each was given a gift watch, a seat and a personal microphone.
 and then was escorted by the teammaster to say anything that came into his mind about his six fellow coaches and the race just ended.

"I only wish you could have seen the look on their faces when they saw me," says Scherwitz happily.

Braves Launch Drive Against Leading Giants

By EARL WRIGHT

United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK — The Braves who whipped Philadelphia's Robin Robert and Curt Simmons in their last two starts, are a last-ditch bid for the National League title tonight against the front-running
 New York Giants and Sal Maglie
 at Polo Grounds.

The Braves, who have shown more bounce than the lively ball this year, warmed up for the three-game series by defeating Simmons Monday night, 7-4. The victory left Milwaukee 4-4, game behind the Giants and one behind the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers.

Braves secured a 6-2 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs. A crowd of 1,148 the smallest night attendance in Polo field history saw left hander Dick Littlefield win his own game when he singled out every inning with the decisive run in the eighth inning.

Manager Charley Grimm, who is trying to get a point for a Milwaukee fan who set a National League attendance for the second straight year in 1953, warmed the Giants a hot tussle.

"Certainly we can catch them," Grimm said, "I'm going to throw my best at them. If they lick us, they've licked our best."

Grimm said "best" means Gene Conley (11-8) will dust Maglie (13-9) tonight. Tomorrow afternoon Grimm plans to start his left hander, Warren Spahn (11-11)
 and Manager Leo 1954 victory over the Braves, his last defeat at the hands of the Braves.

On the hands and you're looking at the pitcher for the first time in weeks. The team which hasn't been able to win two in a row for four weeks and Giants officials begin accepting World Series ticket orders today.

Mays and Brouthers gave Antonelli the only run he needed in the first inning against the Cards.
 Willie's high fly dropped close to the right field fence for a double and Rhodes scored him with a single. Mays' double, was his extra base hit of the season, breaking the club record set by Mel Ott in 1939.

Milwaukee led 3-3 when Del
 Crandall started a four-run spurge at Philadelphia with a double. He fired hit of the game, Andy Patko sacrificed Crandall to third and was safe at first when Simmons made a late throw to third trying
